June Cleaver set a very high standard for moms during her tenure on TV's Leave It to Beaver. She vacuumed the living room in a tailored dress, high heels and a strand of pearls. We can't explain away the shoes and dress, but actress Barbara Billingsley had a practical explanation for her omnipresent pearls. She said that she had a deep wrinkle at the base of her neck that resembled a tracheotomy scar, and she wore the pearl necklace to conceal it.

There are many theories as to the identity of the "real" Mother Goose, dating to 17th century France or 18th century England. Other sources point to Elizabeth Foster of Boston. She married Isaac Goose, a widower with 10 children, in 1682. The Gooses (Geese?) had six more children of their own. Legend has it that Elizabeth kept her brood entertained with songs and rhymes that she composed, and many years later her son-in-law, Thomas Fleet, compiled a selection of her material into a book.

Did You Know?

A clogged lint filter could possibly cause a dryer fire. You should occasionally clean your dryer's lint filter with warm soapy water and a toothbrush. Dryer sheets can cause a film and lint particles will stick to it making an almost invisible barrier in the tiny mesh openings in your lint filter. Try it! Run water in your lint filter and I'll bet you'll see some pooling of water. Now wash the filter and run water in it again. The water will run straight through meaning your filter will work better!

Red coral became a symbol of immortality to the ancient Greeks, presumably because of its branching shape and vibrant color. The Greeks believed it to be a panacea and protector against gout, poisons, and enchantments. Red and pink corals are still said to bring good luck to their owners.

WHAT MOMS REALLY WANT FOR MOTHER'S DAY

- To be able to eat a whole candy bar by herself, and drink a glass of Diet Coke without any "floaters".
- To have my 14-year-old answer a question without rolling her eyes in that "Why is this person my mother?" way.
- Five pounds of chocolate that won't add twenty.
- A shower, without a child peeking through the curtain with a "Mom?" just as I put razor to my ankle.
- A full-time cleaning person, who looks like Brad Pitt.
- For my teenager to announce, "Hey, Mom! I got a full scholarship and a job all in the same day!"
- A grocery store that doesn't have candy, gum, or cheap toys displayed at the checkout line.
- To have a family meal without a discussion about bodily secretions.
- To be able to sit down on a plane with my toddler and not have some pencil-neck-yuppie moan, "Ohhh, nooo! Why me?"
- Four words: Fisher Price Play Prison.

Brain Teaser Answer: Jennifer is fifteen, in a system that awards five for each syllable.

DO YOU WANT TO WIN A FREE
3-DAY/2-NIGHT MINI VACATION?

Each month we'll give you a new trivia question. The first 10 people to call with the correct answer will be eligible to win. At the end of the month we'll draw one lucky name. That winner will receive a certificate good for 3 fun-filled days and 2 exciting nights of deluxe hotel accommodations. Here is this month's trivia question:
